

Environmental Stewards Pilot Program

Join people from across our region who want to become educated and empowered to be able to advocate and promote a just and healthy future for all. The free 8-week session will meet on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 - 8 p.m. via Zoom. Each week will cover an overview of topics with extra resources available for those wanting to go deeper into learning on their own.

Introduction and Overview

July 14, 2021

- What's an Environmental Steward?
- Jemez Principles of Organizing
- Commit! Nashua River Success Story
- Our stories, hopes, dreams & visions

Earth Basics

July 21, 2021

- Earth basics - cycles and webs (water, nutrients, carbon, energy, food)
- Watersheds, airsheds, and climate issues
- Finding your place on a map.
- What's your environmental address?

Environmental Justice, Racism, Ethics, and Corruption

July 28, 2021

- Extractive colonialism (peoples and lands)
- History of racism in environmental movement
- Environmental Justice & EJ Communities
- EJ inside and out of traditional EJ communities
- How have you been affected?

Civic Engagement, Civics 101 & Forms of Social Activism

August 4, 2021

- Roles of local, regional, state and federal governments
- Forms of civic engagement
- Social activism
- What roles interest you?

Multi-solving Solutions. Introduction to Policies and Frameworks

August 11, 2021

- UN Sustainable Development Goals
- Project Drawdown
- ENROADS
- Other policy solutions (Net Zero by 50, Carbon Pricing, Paris Agreement, etc.)
- What looks interesting? What do you want to learn more about?

Environmental Stewardship with Local Examples

August 18, 2021

- Restoration and Protection
- Everyday Choices
- Community Awareness
- Civic Action
- Stewardship Science
- What interests you?

Environmental Stewardship. Project Practice

August 25, 2021

Work individually or in sub-groups on a general idea or a specific topic based on feedback from the previous meetings.

Feedback and Next Steps

September 1, 2021

Share ideas with the whole group for feedback and suggestions. Hopefully some groups will be interested in continuing on and will make plans to move on from here.

To register please email:
Francisco Ramos. framos@nvcomm.org

Thank you to our co-sponsors for helping us spread the word:

